CAREER HISTORY

Claude worked as a solicitor before being called to the bar, including as a Legal Officer for the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions. Claude has appeared on behalf of the Crown and the Crime and Corruption Commission in criminal proceedings and applications for restraint and forfeiture of proceeds of crime before the District and Supreme Court.

More recently, he worked as a Senior Lawyer for the Office of the Director of Child Protection Litigation prosecuting applications for child protection orders.

Since commencing work at the private bar, Claude has been briefed primarily in family law and child protection matters. He has appeared in trials before the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia in Queensland, but also in Victoria, New South Wales, the Australian Capital Territory and Western Australia. He has also appeared unled before the Full Court of the Family Court of Australia.

Aside from family law, Claude has worked on and appeared in a variety of other matters, including building and construction, employment, administrative and commercial matters.
